Kingdom Mission - Serving (Jeremiah 29:1-14)

Sermon Recap: Jeremiah teaches us what Jesus perfectly lived out, don't miss the mission by fighting against, floating with, or fleeing from the city. Rather, live on mission faithfully within the city – being a people of calling, commitment, confidence and comprehensive care as you commit to pray for the 'welfare' of the city. "For in its welfare, you will find your welfare."

Hook: These questions can help encourage conversation.

1. Have you ever witnessed the strength of the ocean current?
2. Share a time when you made a commitment that proceeded contentment.

Look: Read the sermon passage. Answer the following textual questions.

3. Read Jer. 29:21, 15-17 and 28:2-4. How do you see the false prophets providing false options for God's people?
4. Read vv. 4-14. How does God prioritize His calling above the circumstances for his people?
5. What is the commitment that God calls his people to in the midst of turmoil?
6. How might the comprehensive care (shalom) of God's people change the landscape of Babylon?
7. What are ways that Jesus lived out his mission faithfully (not fighting, fleeing, or floating)?

Took: Applying the message to our lives.

8. Which false prophet do you most often believe? How does this manifest in your life?
9. How could sitting with people longer (past the 7 minute mark), offering them your presence, change your relationships? Are you lacking this?
10. Which description of faithfulness within the city do you need to embrace most right now? How might you do this?

Prayer/Verse:

Take time to pray, as a group, for the welfare of WJCC: its politicians, professionals, teachers, pastors, service men/women, fathers and mothers, and all of its people.
